Mariner Boating Holidays – the catalyst so you can have a more adventurous life

We have been specialising in worldwide sailing holidays since 1985. Our vision is to be the catalyst for you to have a more adventurous life.

When you're on a yacht the sense of being away from it all is like no other. A joy quite like no other. The joy of freedom. The joy of the unpredictable. The joy of spontaneity. The joy of connections with like-minded others or conversely time for you. The joy of being away from the rest of your life. The joy of the unknown, the adventure.

Mariner Boating Holidays is inseparably connected to this set of human needs, values and associations. We remind people what we all live for.
